

Email 1 – From a student to their professor requesting an extension on an assignment submission deadline.

Subject: Request for Extension on Assignment Submission Deadline

Dear Professor,

I hope you are doing well. I am writing to respectfully request an extension for the submission deadline of the assignment due on 31.03.2026.

Unfortunately, I have been facing some unforeseen circumstances that have affected my ability to complete the assignment on time. I am working hard to finish it to the best of my ability and would greatly appreciate a short extension of a few days.

I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this may cause and assure you that I am committed to submitting quality work as soon as possible. I kindly request you to consider my situation and grant me an extension.

Thank you for your understanding and support.

Sincerely,
AASIR JAFFER

Email 2- From a student to an internship coordinator at a company, expressing interest in a summer internship opportunity.

Subject: Application for Summer Internship Opportunity

Dear Internship Coordinator,

I hope you are doing well. I am writing to express my interest in the summer internship opportunity at your company.

I am currently a student pursuing my degree in Cyber Security, and I am eager to gain practical experience in the field. I am particularly interested in applying my knowledge of Python and open linux concepts in a professional environment.

I believe this internship would provide me with valuable industry exposure and help me develop my technical and professional skills. I am enthusiastic about learning from experienced professionals and contributing positively to your team.

Please let me know if there are any further steps in the application process. I would be grateful for the opportunity to be considered.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
AASIR JAFFER LONE
